

Costs for the Residence

The cost of the Residence for artists.....USD 1660 will be paid in two parts..... Once selected, the artist reserve its place paying.....USD 360

The second payment will be paid once arrived to the program residence place, before beginning the activities..... USD 1300

Brief information

The duration of the residence is 21 days. All included.

The artists will lodge at Anaconda's Bungalows Resort, La Paloma.

The bungalows counts with the following comforts: kitchen, television, comfortable beds, recreation place, swimming pool, room service, etc. This place will be used for dormitory, maintenance of the personal hygiene, recreation, etc. But it is not to be used for practical workshops activities.

The art workshops were carried out at Waslala Ranch situated 2 km. from Anacondas Bungalows.

The transfers from and towards the Airport Int. Carrasco are included in the residence. Lunch and dinner, as well as the daily transport of roundtrip dormitory-workshop - dormitory is including in the residence. Two strolls to zones of archaeological interest are includes in the residence.

A horse riding around the protected area of biodiversity "Lagoon of Rocha" is included in the residence. Welcome barbecue, and goodbye celebration is includes in the residence. All the workshops of the project Art Natural Reserve are includes in the residence. The materials necessary to work in the factories are at disposition of the residents.

Cost of the Program Workshops: the people interested to participate in the factories outside the residence. Applicants would pay.....

Package of 10 days..... USD 660

Package of 2 days.....USD 90

Conditions

The conditions during the project are the following: The guest artist has to comply with reciprocal respect, good manners and open collaboration with other artists, collaborators and people in general.

A friendly relationship with the natural environment during the workshops at Rancho Waslala and the Protected natural area Laguna de Rocha.

Even if most of collaborators and organizers speak English, we encourage participants with Spanish language basic knowledge.

Application

Artists are requested to send in the following documentation to info@proyectoarte.org:

Curriculum vitae

Short statement

Motivation to participate at Arte Natural Residence program.

