

"Taos was the experience of a lifetime for me, a dream come true. The hotel was, not only comfortable and the food excellent, but it was situated perfectly for all the scenic/subject excursions."

"An excellent re-grounding for any individual who wants to devote a week strictly to the observance of the beauty of nature. It's not often one can devote oneself 24-7 to the passion of art in the company of likeminded devotees."

'MECCA OF THE SOUTHWEST'
PLEIN AIR WORKSHOP
AUGUST 21-30, 2011

Visiting Taos, New Mexico in 2007 and 2008 was a great experience for me. The names Taos and Santa Fe evoke colorful and exotic artistic visions of the Southwest. This land has inspired artist's visions, and generated wonderful work of art.

There is nothing like experiencing the cobalt canopy of sky and the pink high desert colors of the area. You will never forget the time spent on the turquoise trail, the mountains, canyons, huge skies, cascading streams, and 360 degree sunsets. Seeing this land thru a painter's eye will add further insights about color and form to your process. It has the power to transform your work and perhaps your life.

I have presented Art workshops in Taos, New Mexico San Miguel, Mexico, and Acadia National Park, Maine.

If this is THE trip you have been dreaming about, then this is the time in your life to take advantage of the great itinerary planned for 2011.

I invite you to give yourself a gift you will never forget.

Artfully yours,

Shelli
